

He Saves

(Matthew 1:21)

Words and Music by Benji Carey-Smith

Verse 1

The baby Jesus lay down in a manger in the dark of a Bethlehem night
Messiah foretold, centuries before; the Son of Almighty God

Verse 2

The angels sang 'Glory to God in the highest', and the shepherds joined in their song
'Peace on the earth to the one on whom the Lord's favour rests'

Chorus

Rejoice, the Messiah has come to the world to save
So lift up your heart and call out on the name of the Lord
He saves

Verse 3

Through the land of Israel He walked with such power, proclaiming the gospel of good news
Branches they waved, as a donkey He rode; 'Hosanna' to Jesus the King

Verse 4

Before His disciples, as they shared the last supper, He told them to remember His death
'This bread is My body, torn apart and broken, and My blood spilled out like this wine'

Chorus

Rejoice, the Messiah has come to the world to save
So lift up your heart and call out on the name of the Lord
Rejoice, the Messiah has come to the world to save
So lift up your heart and call out on the name of the Lord
He saves

He Saves - 2

Bridge

He saves, rejected and despised
He saves, forgiveness through His blood
He saves, nailed to the cross
He saves, bearing the justice of God
He saves, freely given grace
He saves, by faith that none should boast
There is no other name by which we can be saved

Chorus

Rejoice, the Messiah has come to the world to save
So lift up your heart and call out on the name of the Lord
Rejoice, the Messiah has come to the world to save
So lift up your heart and call out on the name of the Lord
He saves
He saves

Verse 5

Early on the third day the tomb lay empty; Jesus had risen from the dead!
To His Father's side, in glory on the throne, He ascended with a promise to return
He ascended with a promise to return
